

Tiffany L. Ware

Professional Profile

Creative and enthusiastic professor dedicated to fostering a student-centered classroom environment based on mutual respect and collaboration. Committed to helping students identify and develop their passions for writing while becoming successful, confident writers.

Education and Certifications

Masters in Liberal Arts

Houston Baptist University 2000

Bachelor of Arts (English)

Texas Southern University 1995

Associate of Arts (General Studies)

Houston Community College System 1991

Provisional Certifications

Houston Independent School District
English Teacher
Secondary Education.

Tutor (Reading and English)

Houston Independent School District
Elementary, Middle, and Secondary 1988-1989

Tutor (English Composition)

Houston Community College System, SE campus
2000-2001

Teaching Qualifications

Visiting Professor, English

Present

Texas Southern University

- 22 years+ teaching in Composition classes. Designed and taught curriculum. Conducted conferences with students for each major paper assignment to address individual goals and progress

Houston Community College System Present –

Adjunct Instructor, Rhetoric and Composition

Adjunct Instructor, Humanities

Adjunct English 2015 -2014

University of Houston-Downtown

Professional ExperienceDirector, Integrated and Reading and Writing Courses (TSU)

Director, Tiger Writing and Reading Tutorial Lab

(Present)Rice University, Houston Texas 2011 - 1999

Executive Assistant to the Provost/Department Coordinator

Interim Assistant to the Vice President for Finance

Rice University, Houston TexasOffice of Finance 2006 - 2007

Office Administrator, Research 2011 - 2010

Office of ResearchService to the Profession

- Rhetoric Textbook Committee, Department of English
- Committee Member of the Tiger Writing and Reading Online Tutorial Lab
- JHJ Faculty Liaison, SASS Liaison, Common Reader
- Freshman English Committee
- Member of the Co-Requisite (INRW) Committee
- Billy J. Turner Writing Symposium Committee
- TSU Faculty Advisor, Big Sister, Little Sister Campus Chapter