TSU STAFF COUNCIL NOMINATION FORM

2018 Membership Elections

The Texas Southern University Staff Council (TSUSC) is accepting nominations for the 2018 Staff Council. We will be electing eleven (11) Designated Council members, seven (7) Alternates, and two (2) At-Large members. At least one (1) representative from each classification will only be allowed to serve a one (1) year term.

CRITERIA

The nominee must be a benefits eligible (100% FTE) staff member employed at Texas Southern University for no less than one year.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Staff Council members are expected to:

- · Attend all meetings of the TSUSC
- · Commit five to seven hours per month to TSUSC business and activities
- Actively participate in or on one or more committees or subcommittees
- Disseminate information from TSUSC meetings to the staff within your representative division
- · Interact with staff to ensure that issues, concerns, or ideas are brought forth to the appropriate administrator for action
- Participate in staff and campus events

TSU STAFF COUNCIL NOMINATION FORM

2018 Membership Elections

Provide a brief (150 words or less) TSU employee history of the nominee. Employment history longer than 150 words will be edited by TSUSC.

(Example: Joan Doe has worked on campus since 1980. She began as a Secretary in the Office of Programs, was promoted to Office Manager, and is now a Business Manager in the Academic Department. Joan has demonstrated her concern for staff by serving on numerous University committees such as Parking and Transportation, the Appeal Board, and the Committee on the Status of Women, etc. I feel certain that Joan would represent the staff well on the TSUSC).
